Megan is a senior in the Tax and Accounting Services practice of Saltmarsh, Cleaveland & Gund. Her primary focus areas include providing tax planning, research and compliance for related services to professional services, manufacturing and technology clients. Prior to joining Saltmarsh, Megan worked with high-net-worth individual tax planning, passthrough entities, and corporation tax compliance with multi-state & international footprints and quarterly provision filings. Her favorite Saltmarsh Fundamental is #10 Deliver Legendary Service because she believes that what makes a firm great is its ability to be proactive and communicative and treat each client individually tailoring our work to their specific needs.
